

Bequests

Including Partners for Youth Empowerment in your Estate Plan

Bequests by generous friends provide significant financial support for Partners for Youth Empowerment (PYE), a program of Commonweal. Your commitment will contribute to PYE's future financial strength and continued reach across the globe to activate creativity, social emotional skills, and a sense of purpose in young people.

You can make a specific gift to PYE of cash or securities. Gifts of real estate or other property through your will, codicil, or trust instrument may need to be accepted by Commonweal's Board of Directors. You can also designate PYE as the beneficiary of all or part of the remainder of your estate or trust after the payment of estate-related expenses. Another way to include the PYE in your estate plan is to name PYE as a beneficiary of your retirement plan or life insurance policy. Please contact your financial advisor to learn more about the tax advantages of including a charitable provision in your estate plans. Most importantly, we thank you for including PYE as part of your legacy.

Partners for Youth Empowerment 'Legacy Club'

A deferred gift through your estate plan qualifies you as a member of the PYE Legacy Club, created to recognize and thank donors whose foresight builds and secures the future of PYE and its mission. Please help us recognize your commitment to PYE by participating in the Legacy Club.

Sample Bequest Language

This language can be provided to your attorney to clarify your commitment to PYE.

"I give (_____ dollars) or (a specific asset such as securities, real estate, or other property) or (all) or (____) percent of the rest, residue, and remainder of my estate) to Partners for Youth Empowerment, a program of Commonweal (for its general purposes) or (for the following purpose: _____)."

While unrestricted gifts allow PYE to allocate funds to areas of greatest need, you may designate your bequest for a particular purpose or use by a specific program or activity. In order to ensure the evolving needs of future generations of PYE program participants are met, it is advisable to include the following language with restricted gifts:

"In the event that at some future time due to changed circumstances, in the judgment of the Commonweal Board of Directors, it becomes impractical to apply my bequest to the designated purpose(s), the t Commonweal Board of Directors shall make such modifications as will appropriately recognize my interests in coordination with Partners for Youth Empowerment priorities."
