Think Differently. Expanding our Creative Possibilities by Shifting our Habits

Themis Gkion

June 30, 2020

How can a simple, uneventful task like cutting a piece of paper produce quite surprising outcomes, just by introducing a small twist? Join Athens-based facilitator, Themis Gkion, to explore how we can expand our creative possibilities by shifting the way we habitually do things. The activities in this workshop are sure to stretch your mind and they make for a great workshop to lead with youth.
